In this section of the newsletter, the CT District intends to provide you a great educational tool of different positions and emotions attached to this issue and the three plans as we move forward together towards the 2019 Special General Conference.

Here is a comparative analysis of the Three Plans / summary of major plans before the 2019 Special General Conference.

And there is an activism around a “simple plan” that the UMNews give us access to his proposal. Please click here to view the article.
